STATUE NEWS.

For many years the statue of George Washington, which was erected in the city of Bangor, has been a source of pride to the citizens.

It is now proposed to erect a statue of the late Mayor of Bangor, which will be a fitting memorial to his memory.

The canvass made among the representatives of the Whig and Courier, who met in a public hall, recently showed that while the Whig and Courier is a strong and influential paper, it is not a party paper.

The Whig and Courier is a paper of the people, and its policy is to be for the people. It is not a party paper, and its policy is not to be for any party.
